

152nd Infantry Regiment Sassari: Carlà Takes Command from Simonelli

Published on 07/09/2025

Sassari, September 6, 2025 – Colonel Luigi Carlà, an officer of the Bersaglieri from the Army General Staff, is the new commander of the 152nd Infantry Regiment “Sassari”. He succeeds Colonel Gianluca Simonelli, a paratrooper officer decorated with the Silver Medal for Army Valor for a mission in Afghanistan.

Brigadier General Andrea Fraticelli, commander of the Brigade “Sassari”

The handover ceremony took place in the Istria square of the “Gonzaga” barracks, in the presence of Brigadier General Andrea Fraticelli, commander of the Brigade “Sassari”, along with numerous civil, military, and religious authorities, including the prefect Grazia La Fauci, the extraordinary administrator of the Metropolitan City Gavino Arru, the mayors of Sassari and Nuoro (Giuseppe Mascia and Emiliano Fenu), the diocesan administrator bishop monsignor Antonio Tamponi and the rector of the University of Sassari Gavino Mariotti.

In his speech, General Fraticelli praised the work done by Colonel Simonelli, who in two years strengthened training, promoted high-level exercises (such as “Fantasma” for snipers and “Giaguaro” for reconnaissance units), organized Command Post exercises and specialized courses on weapon systems, drones, and personnel integration. He also highlighted the operational participation in the readiness phase of the Joint Rapid Response Force (JRRF), demonstrating interoperability according to NATO and EU standards.
