

BREAKING NEWS - Israel Attacks Iran

Published on 13/06/2025

In the early hours of today, around 2:00 AM Italian time, Israel launched a preemptive airstrike against strategic targets in Iran, initiating a new phase of escalation in the already complex situation in the Middle East. Israeli Defense Minister Israel Katz announced the immediate declaration of a special state of emergency across the entire national territory, citing the possibility of an imminent missile and drone attack against Israel and its civilian population.

"It is necessary to adhere with utmost urgency to the directives of the Home Front Command and local authorities, and remain in protected shelters," reads the official statement from the Defense Minister's office.

Targets: Nuclear Program and Long-Range Missiles

According to Israeli military sources cited by CNN, the raids hit "dozens of targets" in various areas of Iranian territory, with particular focus on infrastructure related to the Iranian nuclear program and the country's long-range missile capabilities. The operations have been described as a “combined, preemptive, and precise offensive action”.

Explosions Reported in Tehran

Iranian state media confirmed explosions in the capital Tehran, but did not provide further official details on possible damages or casualties. It is not yet clear if Iran has initiated a military response, but the entire region is on high alert.

The United States: “Not Involved”

U.S. officials, contacted by CNN, stated they are aware of the Israeli attack, but clarified that the United States is not involved in any way in the military operation against Iran.

Closure of Schools and Workplaces in Israel

Meanwhile, in Israel, the government has ordered the immediate closure of schools, workplaces, and the suspension of all types of public gatherings. Authorities have urged the population to remain in shelters or protected environments, ready to respond to potential counterattacks.
